Great Progress

OF THE

Fisher's

Pianos

From a small beginning the Fisher Piano has grown to be not only one of the best known pianos made, but its sale has reached a point where it is nearly doubtful that at any piano manufactured in this or any other country. All this has been accomplished, practically speaking, within the past ten years. Not only this, but it has received the highest testimonials from many of the greatest vocalists and pianists that the world has ever produced. It is in daily use in leading schools and colleges everywhere, and has received highest rewards wherever publicly exhibited.—Chicago Indicator.

We sell the Fisher Pianos, also Decker Bros. and Webber Pianos, Story & Clark and Chicago Cottage Organs, and several other fine makes.

URGED INVESTIGATE

Grand Jury is Further Charged.

AS TO SUNDAY VIOLATING

Judge Humphreys Commands It to Look Into Liquor Selling At Waikiki.

Before the Grand Jury settled down to business yesterday Judge Humphreys called them into the courtroom and delivered an additional charge to them that was as full of interesting allegations as the charge that was read to them on Monday. It resulted from a talk with one of the hotel-keepers at Waikiki, and its outcome will probably be quite interesting. It is given in full as follows:

THE JUDGE'S CHARGE.

Gentlemen of the Grand Jury: On August the 6th at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon, you were impaneled, sworn and charged to enquire into such matters as might be brought to your attention by the Attorney General, as might be given you in charge by this Court, as might be brought to your attention by private matters, and as might be within the personal knowledge of any one of you. Since delivering that charge to you, I was informed by the proprietor of a resort in Waikiki, Mr. Almy, proprietor of the Waikiki Inn, that he had without any reservation or without any question, engaged in the sale of liquor on Sundays, doing so by virtue of some arrangement with the police, he having understood that he might sell liquor on Sundays and that he would not be prosecuted therefor.

I desire now to charge you that whatever understanding or agreement Mr.
Almy or any other person engaged in the sale of liquor may have had with a police officer or any other officer of the Government, no matter who he is or how high his position, it cannot afford him any protection whatever if there has been a violation of the statute law.

AN ALARMING CONDITION.

If the statement made to me by Mr.
Almy is true, a most dangerous, alarming and corrupting state of affairs is presented to the people of this Territory.
It does not lie in the mouth of any official of this Territory (I do not care how high his position may be) and it does not lie in the mouth of any police officer by his mere whim, caprice or avert will to say he will set aside or ignore violations of the statute laws of this Territory, and to permit people to do what those laws say shall not be done. A man may be corrupt without taking money. You may be so, gentlemen of the jury, by favoritism or the exhibition of moral fear.

If, for instance, you refrained from making a presentation by reason of moral fear, if you failed to discharge your duties, failed to recognize the obligations imposed upon you by your oaths, you would be quite as corrupt as if you had taken money for refraining from doing so.
If any officer, from the High Sheriff down to the lowest policeman on the force, has made any sort of an agreement with any liquor dealer or seller that he might sell liquor on Sunday in violation of law, that officer is corrupt, and the charge against him should be investigated. It should be investigated without fear and without reference to the consequences.

WHO IS A BOARDER?

Our statute provides that "Any holder of a license who shall sell or retail any spiruous liquor or permit the same to be drunk in his house or premises on Sundays, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $200." But this section shall not apply to the ordinary supplies furnished to bona fide boarders and lodgers in the house or premises. Mark these words: "This section shall not apply to the ordinary supplies furnished to bona fide boarders and lodgers in the house or premises." The exception is that a person who runs a boarding-house on hotel may, if he has a license, furnish the ordinary supplies to bona fide boarders or lodgers in his house. A man, by going to a so-called boarding-house and simply by writing his name in the register, would not become a bona fide boarder or lodger. A man who goes there to take a dinner or lunch would not be a bona fide boarder or lodger. Perhaps a man who went to one of these places on a Saturday night and remained until Monday morning might come within the contemplation of the statute as a lodger.

It were better that every man on the beach should openly and without license sell liquor on Sundays or at any time that might best suit his pleasure or convenience—it would be better, I say, to have that condition prevail than that any police officer or Government officer should arrogate the power and authority of being unto himself the supreme and final law. Not only under such circumstances will there cease to exist any rights or law in this country, or any liberty, but the result would tend to corruption or, what is worse—favoritism.

ENFORCE THE LAWS.

Take this case: The Sheriff or some other Government officer says to you, if these people are not permitted to sell liquor on Sundays by virtue of their license, some other person will sell it without license, and because the law is going to be violated secretly I will let these people violate it openly. You might just as well say, we will appoint a few good men in the community to commit larceny because there are laws against larceny on our statute books and they cannot be enforced. People will commit larceny; so people will sell liquor on Sundays despite the fact that there are laws against it.

But by enforcing the laws we minimize the offense. For about 500 years burglary has been treated as a felony, and for a long time in England it was a capital offense, and yet, in spite of this fact, men committed burglary. Now suppose the High Sheriff or some other officer should say that, owing to the number of burglaries committed in this community and the impossibility of preventing it, "I will pick out a few fairly good men and give them the permission to commit burglary because they will do it in a nice way." That is an extreme case, but it is a logical illustration of the matter in hand.
Before we realize the extent of a wrong our rights are taken away.

The usurpation of power is the result of a graduated process. A man never becomes wholly bad at once. He begins by doing some little thing that he has no right to do. He is not prosecuted for it.
He then does some other little thing that he has no right to do, for which he is not prosecuted; then he becomes steeped in crime. It is the same with the usurpation of power and authority. It is done a little at a time until finally no law is left.

SEND FOR ALMY!

I say that any understanding with this man to the effect that liquor might be sold to people on Sundays affords neither Mr. Almy nor any other parties any protection whatever, and it is absolutely disgraceful to the officer who entered into the compact. I desire you to send for Mr. Almy. You will bear in mind that a man is not compelled to give evidence against himself. Should he decline to testify with regard to these matters, it will be your duty to excuse him. I wish you to go to the bottom of this thing.

I wish you to find out what agreement there was between this man and the officers of this Government, that he might violate the laws of this country.
Find out what officer entered into such an agreement, and set it forth in the report which you will make to this Court, and the Court will take upon itself to see, by making proper disposition of that report, that similar offenses are not committed. This is a species of favoritism, and it is the first time it has been brought to the attention of this Court.
I trust it will be the last. It is the duty of the Sheriff and the Attorney General to enforce the laws, and in this Court neither they nor any other officer can set them aside. You will make careful inquiry into the matter about which I have spoken to you at this time. You may now retire.

KANE INDICTED?

The case against Kane, the native who assaulted a Chinese hackdriver and robbed him of all of his money on the road to Tantalus some weeks ago was before the Grand Jury during the afternoon, and it is understood that an indictment was brought against Kane. The Chinese was brought to the courthouse from the hospital in the patrol wagon and carried up to the Grand Jury room on a stretcher. He was very weak and is still unable to stand or to exert himself at all, but he told his story to the Grand Jurymen, and he was himself a sufficient exhibit against the murderous native. Kane is accused of highway robbery and assault to commit murder, and these indictments will without doubt be brought against him.

The case against the young Portuguese who was accused of taking a warrant for a teacher's salary from the office of the Board of Education and obtaining the cash for it, was likewise before the Grand Jury and it is likely that an indictment will be brought against him also.

It is not likely that the jury will reach the matter of the Waikiki cases, to which Judge Humphreys called their attention in the morning, for a day or so, although they may take it up today. The matter of the charge was discussed only informally at the meeting of the jury in the morning and it was decided to defer action on it until after the criminal cases which they are now considering are disposed of.

THE CRUSADE FOR FISH PROTECTION

Secretary Cooper is Meeting With Success in His Efforts.

Secretary of the Territory Henry E.
Cooper is meeting with considerable success in forming an association for the protection of fish in Hawaiian waters and for the introduction of foreign species. A large number of people have signified their approval of such work by placing their names to the paper which Mr. Cooper drew up.
By the next mail is expected a reply from Secretary of Agriculture Wilson relative to sending a fish expert to the Islands to investigate the various water temperatures and depths and investigate the opportunities for establishing a fish hatchery here under the auspices of the United States Fish Commission. Prof. Shorey, of the Board of Health, has bottled several varieties of Hawaiian fishes, using for-malin instead of alcohol. The use of the former liquid is the most approved method of preserving them as the colors are not bleached as is the case when alcohol is used.

DON'T NEGLECT

A Common Case of Piles—It may Lead to Serious Results.
(From the Sydney Herald.)

When people generally understand that all such fatal diseases as fistula, ulcer of the rectum, fissure, etc., almost invariably begin in a simple case of piles, they will learn the wisdom of taking prompt treatment for the first appearance of trouble in this quarter.
Doan's Ointment will certainly cure every form of piles—itching, bleeding, protruding, or blind piles—and hundreds of lives have been saved by using this cheap, effective remedy right at the start, because at such a time a single pot will effect a cure, while in the old chronic, deep-seated cases, several pots are sometimes necessary before a lasting cure is effected.
Here is a case:

Mr. William Gilliver, of the well-known firm of Gilliver & Curtis, railway and general contractors, and whose private address is "Avoca," Bankstown, has written the following unsolicited letter, which we herewith publish in full:

Messrs. Foster-McClellan Co., 76 Pitt
St., Sydney, N. S. W., February 14, 1899.

Dear Sirs:—In justice to you and suffering humanity I write to say that I suffered from itching piles for 22 years. I tried many doctors and pretended all kinds of patent medicines, but got relief for a short time only.
Seeing your Ointment advertised I bought a pot and did not use more than one-half of it, not six months ago, and I am perfectly cured. You may use this to your wish.

Yours gratefully,
WILLIAM GILLIVER.

It cannot be repeated too often that Doan's Ointment will cure itching piles. IT WILL CURE THEM ABSO-LUTELY. But do not take the manufacturer's word for this; ask or write Mr. Gilliver; he knows, for it cured him, and he lives in Bankstown, a suburb 12 miles from Sydney. Is not that the best possible kind of proof? Could there be better?

Doan's Ointment is sold by all dealers at 50 cents per box or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, agents for the Hawaiian Islands.
